

Shasta County Board of Supervisors Proclamation

Public Service Recognition Week
May 7-13, 2017

WHEREAS, the week of May 7-13, 2017 has been designated as Public Service Recognition Week to honor the employees of the federal government, and state and local governments; and

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week provides an opportunity to recognize and promote the important contributions of public servants and honor these diverse men and women at all levels of government and members of the uniformed services; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, deputy sheriffs, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, healthcare professionals, and others, risk their lives each day in service to the members of the public; and

WHEREAS, public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers, and countless other occupations, who provide diverse services with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, if not for these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Shasta hereby proclaims May 7-13, 2017 as Public Service Recognition Week and urges all residents of Shasta County to join with them in showing thanks and appreciation to the public service employees who reside and work in Shasta County for their dedication and commitment in providing exceptional public services.
