

Shasta County Board of Supervisors Proclamation

Public Service Recognition Week May 6-12, 2018

WHEREAS, the week of May 6 through May 12, 2018 has been designated as Public Service Recognition Week to honor the employees of the federal government, and state and local governments and members of the uniformed services; and

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week provides an opportunity to recognize and promote the important contributions of public servants and honor the diverse men and women who meet the needs of the United States through work at all levels of government and as members of the uniformed services; and

WHEREAS, millions of individuals work in government service, and as members of the uniformed services, in every State, county, and city across the United States and in hundreds of cities abroad; and

WHEREAS, the ability of the Federal Government and State and local governments to be responsive, innovative, and effective depends on outstanding performance of public servants; and

WHEREAS, members of the uniformed services and civilian employees at all levels of government make significant contributions to the general welfare of the United States, and are on the front lines in the fight to defeat terrorism and maintain homeland security; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Shasta hereby proclaims May 6-12, 2018 as Public Service Recognition Week and urges all residents of Shasta County to join in showing appreciation to the public service employees who reside and work in Shasta County for their dedication and commitment in providing exceptional public services.
